

Jennifer M. Granholm
Governor of the State of Michigan

Invites you to join her for the 2010 Midwest U.S.-Japan Association Annual Conference
“Powering the Future: Transformation & Growth Strategies”
September 12-14, 2010
Detroit, Michigan

The Midwest U.S.-Japan Association serves as a premier forum for discussions on not only bilateral trade and investment, but also on broader issues facing business today.

Michigan is extremely proud to host this annual event. The conference will be at the Detroit Marriott at the Renaissance Center, with events at the renowned Detroit Institute of the Arts and the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village - America's Greatest History attraction. Detroit is served by daily non-stop flights from Japan as well as many Midwestern cities.

There's no town like Motown. Dynamic culture and world-class attractions make this city worth exploring. Come and experience Pure Michigan at the 42nd Midwest U.S.-Japan Association Conference.
