

Position: Purchasing Quality Engineer

Location: Greensburg, Indiana

Responsibilities:

- Responsible for analyzing parts to the drawing and specifications to assure conformance.
- Countermeasure approval for Supplier related defects
- Part or process approval prior to use on saleable product
- Responsible to review Supplier process to assure conformity to specification, by reviewing Operation Standard, and Process Control Sheets.
- Negotiating and communicating quality activity with Suppliers, In-house departments, and Management.

Daily Tasks:

- Investigate suspect part problems
- Disposition nonconforming parts
- Approve part/process changes
- Issue countermeasure requests
- Approve/confirm Supplier countermeasures

Required Skills:

- Fluent in Japanese & English language skills
- Ability to lead meetings and/or present technical reports
- Ability to read part drawings (blueprint reading)
- Ability to work as a team member to achieve a common goal
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Strong problem solving and troubleshooting skills
- Strong leadership skills
- Ability to manage and prioritize multiple tasks
- Ability to travel and work overtime with short notice

Desired Skills:

- Quality Engineering Co-op experience
- Internal auditor experience
- Catia/Enovia experience

- Ability to handle multiple tasks
- Ability to do complex problem solving
- Ability to use QC tools (SPC, Pareto, X-R Charts, etc.)

Degree:

- 4 year degree (no experience necessary) or two year technical degree with 2 years related experience

Interested candidates please apply at www.indiana.honda.com