

BON-ODORI FESTIVAL

July 26 (SUN) 2015

Ocean World parking lot

Start 5:00pm~9:00pm

The Sakura/Ocean world Japanese festival is making its annual come back ONCE AGAIN.

For those that are not familiar to this event, it is a traditional Japanese dance festival that takes place every summer here in Indiana. This year will be our 21th year continuing the tradition, and would like for you to come join us!

The event will start from 5:00 p.m. till 9:00p.m. There will be many food sales including sushi, yakisoba (stir-fried noodles), yakitori (skewered grilled chicken), takoyaki (fried octopus fried with batter), ika teriyaki, ramune soft drinks, ice cream and more.

This type of dance festival is very common in Japan during the months of summer. We encourage all different types of cultures come together and celebrate this joyous occasion. So invite your friends and family and come join us on July 26th.

*Because the area is a parking lot, we would like to caution you now, that there are tire-stop concretes as well as minor pot holes. Therefore, please be careful when walking around due to minimal lighting after dark, as well as monitoring your own children for their safety.

In case of any weather issues, if it rains, there could be a possibility that the event may be cancelled. For any questions or comments please call Ocean World restaurant at (317)848-8901.

-sponsors: Indianapolis Minyo Dancers, Indianapolis Japan-American Society, Sakura Kai, JFC, TWG, Yamasho, Nishimoto, Martinez, Takara, One World Market, Sakura, Ocean World, Toumon Kai, and other many individual volunteers.
